General Notice

1st Semester students with SEC-Basics of Script Writing in English are hereby instructed to submit a one-page assignment on the topic given below on March 5-6, 2026 to the teachers of the Department of English in the Teachers' Staff Room. No assignment will be accepted after the given dates.
The assignment must be written on one single piece of A4 size paper with the student's full name, university registration number and college roll number written on top and the answer below. If the answers of any two or more students are found to be the same, all of them will be cancelled.
No files of any sort, or artistic decoration will be accepted.

Assignment topic
Read the paragraph below and suggest five visual clues (things about the characters and the setting that can be seen) and five audio clues (sounds and noises that can be heard) to make the scene ready to be included in a script for a film:
Three students of Birpara College meet at Birpara College Canteen on a rainy day and order black tea. The canteen is full of people. The tea comes while the students talk among themselves. After finishing the tea, they go to pay but are surprised to be told by the canteen staff that a strange man has already paid for their tea. The staff describe the man but the students cannot find him inside or outside the canteen.
